Privacy Policy

green HAT
Creative thinking

Green Hat is committed to protecting the privacy of users of the www.greenhat.studio website and subscribers to the Green Hat newsletter. This privacy policy explains what information we collect, how we protect any information you submit to us, and how we use it. We may amend this policy from time to time by updating this page. Please check this page occasionally to ensure you are aware of and happy with any amendments.

What information do we collect?

1. When you use our website we collect information about your browser, your general location (country and city), the online site from which you come and the links followed when leaving our site. This information is also collected through cookies (see below).

2. When you register for our newsletter we collect your name and email address.

How is the information used?

We use user information for statistical purposes in order to improve our website for user experience. We use subscriber information to communicate newsletters including details of our business which we may think will be of interest to you.

Your information will never be disclosed to any third party.

Cookies

Cookies are text files stored on your computer and accessible only to the websites which create them. Our website may from time to time use cookies and log files for statistical analysis, to understand user behaviour, to administer the site, to tailor the information presented to a user based on their preferences, and to improve user experience. Any information gathered by our use of cookies is compiled on an aggregate, anonymous basis.

Most web browsers automatically accept cookies, however you may delete or disable cookies by following the instructions on the following site: www.allaboutcookies.org/manage-cookies/clear-cookies-installed.html.

Social Media

If you share our content through social media, for example by liking us on Facebook, following or tweeting about us on Twitter, or giving us a +1 on Google Plus, those social networks will record that you have done so and may set a cookie for this purpose. As is the case for all cookies, we cannot access those set by social networks, just as those social networks cannot access cookies we set ourselves.

Google analytics

Our website uses Google Analytics, a tool that helps us understand how people are using our website. The Google Analytics cookie will store a unique identifier as well as information about the pages users visit. This includes when the user is seen on the website, how long the user was seen on the website, and what site the user was looking at before arriving at the site (the referring url).

Further information about Google's privacy policy may be obtained from https://policies.google.com/privacy.

Your acceptance of this privacy policy

By using our website you consent to the collection and use of information by us. If you no longer wish to receive our newsletter you can unsubscribe by clicking on the 'unsubscribe from this list' link in the footer of our newsletter. Alternatively you can send us an email with the word UNSUBSCRIBE in the subject box.

How to contact us
